Paintings by Sarah Gerould

Sarah Gerould is a Medford artist who works in oil, watercolor and print. Her paintings range from landscapes and creatures to vegetables, abstracts to more realistic images. They are a window on our world, humorous, serious, serene and disturbing. They reflect her passion for the outdoors and the creatures that dwell there. Sarah has been painting for 26 years.

Her passion for the environment led her to a PhD in environmental toxicology and a career in the sciences at US Fish and Wildlife Service and the US Geological Survey. Retired now, she splits her time between her art and advocating on behalf of trees with TreesMedford, which she coChairs.

The paintings in this exhibit are for sale. Please contact her directly if you are interested in purchasing a painting.
